A BRILLIANT WEDDING AT SHIRLEY.—On Wednesday last Mr. H. W. Bransford, city attorney of Manchester, was married to Alice, the eldest daughter of Capt. R. R. Carter, and a grand daughter of the late Col. Capt. Carter, of Shirley, the beautiful home of Capt. Carter, on the James river. A brilliant company was present on this interesting occasion. The following were the waiters:
Mr. Jones Daniels and Miss Bransford; Mr.
Richard Dunlop, of this city, and Miss Christina, of Charles City county; Mr. Stevens Taylor and Miss Daniel, of this city; Mr. Humphries, of New York, and Miss Mollie Minor, of Richmond; Mr. T. H. Bransford and Miss Carrie Minor, of this city; Mr. Henry T. Wickham, of this city, and Miss Harrison, of Charles City; Judge E. C. Minor, of Richmond, and Miss Mary, of Annapolis, Md.; Dr. Bransford and Miss Carter (sister of the bride).
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr.
Wade, of the Episcopal Church, in an unusually impressive manner.

After the marriage the hospitalities of this home were dispensed by Capt. Carter with a beauty and grace.

The whole company will remain at Shirley until Monday, when they will come to this city by the steamer Sylvester. —Richmond Whig.

WHY THE SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS
ASK FOR CROOKS. — A delegation of Charleston Democrats have asked for the protection of United States troops. Why? A letter we received some days ago from a lady of Charleston tells the reason. The ruffianly part of the back of Charleston, this lady complained, daily gather in the streets, insult ladies and trifle with children with vague threats of violence and murder. This has gone on for some time.
There is no remedy for this grievous abuse and danger. The local government does not give protection; the Governor neglects his duty as conservator of the peace and order of the State, and the white men are forbidden by Chamberlain's proclamation to assist him or to organize to protect those to whom they are entitled. What can they do? If they undertake to punish these black ruffians they are outwitted, and not only that, but they are liable to be raised a hue and cry, and are liable to be raised a hue and cry. The lady complains that the natural impulse to crush ruffianism themselves. They have asked for Federal troops—what else had Chamberlain left for them to do, except to suffer the continued insults to ladies and children of the lawless blacks. —N. Y. Herald.

A THRILLING ADVENTURE.—Henry N. C., about 25—last evening, just after dark, the last horse of the stage from Ashville became unmanageable on a mountain two miles from here, and jumped headlong down a precipice fifty feet, dragging the other horses and stage with them. Mr. Nutt and wife, Mrs. William Patterson and daughters, Mrs. M. P. Taylor and children, and Major Engelhard, all of William-burg, and Mrs. Brooker, of Tennessee, were the passengers. Mr. Nutt, Major Engelhard, and the Misses Parsley were on top of the stage.
Major Engelhard got the young ladies off, and Nutt jumping off with him, and the two assisted them inside to alight just as the stage fell over the precipice. One of the horses, holding the stage up a moment after the other three were dangling in the air, gave the necessary time to save the lives of all. —Wilmington

ARMY NORTHERN VIRGINIA.—The Virginia Division of the Army of Northern Virginia will celebrate its sixth anniversary in the hall of the house of Delegates on Wednesday evening next, November 1st, Gen. W. H. F. Lee presiding.

Capt. W. Gordon McCabe will represent the society on an occasion which awakens the deepest interest in all classes of society. His subject is the "Siege of Petersburg." The reputation of Capt. McCabe is a full guarantee that he will worthily follow Col. Venable, Col.
Mason, and Major Daniel, heretofore orators of the Society. After the public exercises the members of the society will repair to the St.
Clare Hotel, and there hold the usual social reunions at the banquet table. —Rich. Whig.

TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY.—R. S.
Parks, ex-Commonwealth's Attorney for Page county, convicted of forgery in the U. S. Court at this place last spring, in charge of Wm. P.
Groves and Samuel J. Price, was taken from the county jail here on Tuesday morning to the United States prison at Mountsville, near the line, West Virginia. His term of imprisonment is two years, but we suppose the six months confinement here will be deducted, if other proceedings do not liberate him earlier.

This proceeding by the U. S. Court will be a surprise to the counsel of Mr. Parks. They had expected the case before the Supreme Court of the United States, and an early decision by that body was anticipated. The action of the Court here may be legal, but it would seem that an unnecessary haste was made in taking him to Mountsville. —Old Commonwealth.
